Sri Sri. Poetry for Self-Improvement. Gael Rodríguez

Gael Rodríguez is probably the poet who has written the most on self-improvement. His verses create an authentic self-help book. The magic happens after having to overcome, firsthand, the great difficulties which afforded him his destiny. His life experience and acquired wisdom have led to an amazing state of wellbeing. Now, he knows that his verses are a wonderful tool for self-improvement, which will transform the hearts of thousands. Poetry for Self-Improvement is a book of poems that targets the heart and its loftiest sentiments. The verses written here are designed to awake in the passionate reader an interesting and inspiring journey through the sweetest and most universal corners of the soul. A stirring adventure through the emotions and values that escort us through life and human experience. A heartfelt invitation to our inner joy. Moreover, Poetry for Self-Improvement is a collection of poems stemming from the path traveled through different countries and cultures, and brought to fruition with the love of my life, Luz, after a process of renunciation and personnel detachment. You can also enjoy the wonderful and inspiring images to help you create a beneficial space for reflection. All of them were taken by the author and his love over the course of recent months. Immerse yourself in the depth of your emotions and from that space of love and self-acceptance conquer a new life full of happiness and personal peace. Your inner melody awaits you.
