Baby on Board Major Rafe Steele lived and breathed the military life. His entire career had been spent in the marines, and he was comfortable in his bachelor life. No wife, no children, and nothing to hold him back from taking the next tough mission. He could ride his motorcycle in the mountains or have a party or three if he had a mind to. He was a lone wolf, and he liked it that way--until one night he came home and there was a package he didn't expect, in the form of a baby car seat holding a little girl and a note. This is Bonnie. She's your daughter. What the hell did he know about being a dad? But when he looked into the baby's eyes, he knew it was the truth, and there was no way he was giving her up. Rafe needed help and decided to enlist his neighbor across the street. Ivy St. Clair was a nurse, and even though he knew she thought he was some kind of playboy, who better to help him learn the ropes of raising a baby? He didn't expect to be attracted to the shy woman with the brown eyes who had no problem saying what she meant. He certainly didn't think he would fall for her and dream about her kisses and her taste. Rafe found his life taking a whole new road where fatherhood and the thought of a commitment took center stage. But would his lone wolf ways come back to haunt him? Especially when the threat of losing his daughter and Ivy became a real possibility. And Baby Makes Three One night of pleasure led to the positive pregnancy test that she held in her hand. Maria Watson succumbed to the most passionate night in her life in the arms of Lieutenant Brody Gillis. While Ivy was celebrating her wedding night with her new husband Rafe. Maria was in his best friends arms and what a night it was. Now as she stared at the positive pregnancy test, her dismayed thought was, merciful heaven what do I do now? Maria didn't know if she wanted a relationship but she did know she was keeping her baby. She was burned by a soldier before and wasn't looking for a repeat with a playboy like Brody. Yet he kept coming around and sending her flowers after that one night. When she told him she was pregnant, he vowed to be the best father to their child and boyfriend to her. Maria wanted to believe all the sweet words that Brody whispered in her ears. But once burned, twice shy and when it seemed Brody's playboy ways surface once again. Would it end up that she'd be raising her baby alone?
