This book will take everyone on a comic look at getting old. Why we make fun of getting old, trust that I take it very serious as I get older myself. Comedy is the best way to get the point across to young people. We will examine the pain of getting old and all the tragic things that come with getting older. We will take a look at Life List items that become Death List items as one gets older. We will also look at what I call the Funnies, how our bodies become an old temple, how memories become optional, and how your doctors become your legal drug dealers. Lastly, we will look at years of adding things, and how the parent becomes the child and the child becomes the parent. Enjoy!
