Reveal the Visions A celebratory dinner on a Saturday evening with her younger brother, Ezra, is the last thing Wendy remembers. Last she knew, she was living in California, trying to stay on top of her college classes; provide for her brother; and cope with her ability to sense the emotions of others. She has no idea how she ended up in Missouri and what she's been up to. No one, not even her brother, is around to tell her. She only knows that years have passed, and the world is in the middle of an apocalypse. Society is steadily crumbling, and its only hope is a no-longer secret organization called the Guild made up of supernaturally gifted individuals called Prime Humans. Wendy learns that not only is she one of them, but she's far more than an empath. The Guild is not without opposition. The Prime Human Insurgency Alliance, led by ex-Guild member Andre Gallagher, is out to senselessly massacre all Prime Humans as well as those who support them. The Human Movement, on the other hand, wants the Guild disbanded. They are led by the compelling and tireless Gabe Dumas, who demands that the Guild shed all secrecy to give humanity its best chance against the elements. Wendy, who has found new purpose to her life within the Guild, is ready to fight for her world. And that means protecting the Guild, and bringing the opposition down. Dreamworld is the 5th installment of the Colorworld series. Haven't read the previous books? Have no fear!
