Sins Of A Good Girl (Volume 1) Hope Destiny

Eva thought her life was great until tragedy struck, and then she learned otherwise. Everything she thinks she knows is a lie and nothing is actually what it seems to be. The important people in her life turn out to be a fabrication of what she'd always thought to be real. For the most part, she has been able to keep her mental state intact until betrayal after betrayal causes her to eventually start to lose what innocence she still have to survive. Will Eva be able to hold on to her true nature? Or, will life just be too much for her sanity?
