Hallelujah Chorus for Saxophone Quartet: Wedding Music from the Messiah

George Frideric Handel

Hallelujah Chorus for Saxophone Quartet: Wedding Music from the Messiah George Frideric Handel
Perfect for Wedding Music. Arranged for Soprano, Alto, Tenor and Baritone Saxophones. Includes score and individual parts for each instrument. In 1750 Handel arranged a performance of Messiah to benefit the Foundling Hospital. The performance was considered a great success and was followed by annual concerts that continued throughout his life. In recognition of his patronage, Handel was made a governor of the Hospital the day after his initial concert. He bequeathed a copy of Messiah to the institution upon his death. His involvement with the Foundling Hospital is today commemorated with a permanent exhibition in London's Foundling Museum, which also holds the Gerald Coke Handel Collection. In addition to the Foundling Hospital, Handel also gave to a charity that assisted impoverished musicians and their families.
