Trail of Dreams Danny Phegan

What a marvellous piece of Australiana! This story of a group of young men and women who travel Australia from "top to bottom" on horseback, fundraising for cancer research, will grab the imaginations of all who have the good fortune to read it. The focus, energy, organisational ability and talents of Danny Phegan and his crew, and their beloved horses, will amaze and delight. The crew is backed by generous-hearted, public-spirited Australians across the nation and by country singers of repute, who participate with such charity and enthusiasm. Danny Phegan is a larger-than-life character who typifies the image of the courageous, hard-working, all-rounder "Aussie bloke". This is a big story about a big country and big-hearted people and their horses. The outcome of the ride is nothing short of stunning, the amount raised a testament to Danny and his dream, and breakthroughs in cancer research as a result, inspiring.
