Beguiled Julia Keaton

Masquerading as a young lord traveling to her cousins in Scotland, Lady Alexandra's plans are sidetracked when she "rescues" a damsel in distress and becomes embroiled in a feud between the Blackmores and her cousins. Alex only wants to escape, but Lord Bronson is convinced she has designs on his sister, and he has no intention of letting Alex out of his sight.

When Lord Bronson discovers the young lord is in truth a woman, it sets him into a rage of passion and desire. Is she spy or temptress? Does she seek ruin upon their household?

Beguiled beyond reason, tempted to the forbidden, Bronson knows of but one way to delve her secrets....

Rating: Contains graphic explicit sex and language; some instances of sexual content which could be offensive to delicate readers; and a sexually aggressive hero.

Genre: Historical Romance.

Overall rating: 4 1/2 Hearts!

While much of this story is filled with hilarious comedy, it is very intense as well. The sizzling chemistry between Bronson and Alex is there from the beginning, even before he realizes she's a woman. It builds to a heated frenzy until Bronson takes what he wants. He is an aggressive hero, but Alex is strong enough to handle him. I hope Ms. Keaton plans on giving some of her wonderful secondary characters stories of their own. I'm sure they would be just as entertaining as this fabulous medieval romance.

Four Roses!

Beguiled was a fun, great read for me. I love books with the woman doing her best to act like someone else and the man can't understand his attraction to another "man". Alex is a funny, determined woman who refuses to allow the king to marry her off to someone she doesn't know. Bronson is a hard, almost cheerless man. However, as you come to learn more about him he is very protective of the ones he loves . . . In other words he is true alpha! Oh my, *fanning self* the sex, *panting* very hot. Because Bronson doesn't reveal that he knows Alex is a woman the foreplay is as hot as the actual action! The love between these two is quick to grab them, quick enough that Bronson denies it wholeheartedly! If you enjoy historical romances, then you will most definitely enjoy Beguiled.
