Where Are We in This Story? (Carnegie Mellon Classic Contemporary Series: Poetry) Sarah Rosenblatt

Sarah Rosenblatt laments, celebrates and questions the meaning of the ongoing story of time. Seasons speak but don't recognize us. Time creeps through the windows in the same way it did with our ancestors. Light shines through and touches hope and sweetness but this is only fleeting, leaving us to a vast sky that doesn't name us or our troubles. Leaves on the trees watch, hold and rot. The collection challenges the guts and touches the heart and soul of being alive in a story in which we are challenged to find meaning.
