Excerpt from The Amazing Emperor Heliogabalus

The life of the Emperor Marcus Aurelius Antoninus, generally known to the world as Helio-gabalus, is as yet shrouded in impenetrable mystery. The picture we have of the reign is that of an imperial orgy - sacrilegious, necromantic, and obscene. The boy Emperor, who reigned from his fourteenth to his eighteenth year, is depicted amongst that crowd of tyrants who held the throne of Imperial Rome, by the help of the praetorian army, as one of the most tyrannical, certainly as the most debased.

Few people have made any study of the documents which relate to this particular period, and fewer still have taken the trouble to inquire whether the accounts of the Scriptoros are trustworthy or consonant with the known facts.

To this present time no account of the life of this Emperor has been published.
