Weather Magick: a collection of poetry and witchcraft Bethany Moore

The poems in this collection span across the years from 2003 to 2015, in no particular order, covering much of my twenties and on into my early thirties. I dedicate this collection to my younger self; my foolish, desperate, naïve heart: may she one day be truly wise. And in the spirit of becoming wiser, I also dedicate this book to those who love me and have been a support in difficult or confusing times, and allowed me the honor of your friendship and time in this life. I am grateful to walk this path with people who live their lives with purpose, humility, and love. Thank you for seeing me, and for believing in me.
