Classic Cars of Cuba

Michael Johnson is a San Francisco based photographer. He is currently one of the most prolific photographers covering Cuba today, traveling annually to the island. For the 2005 Classic Cars of Cuba Calendar, Michael has provided 12 of his most popular images.

His belief in taking these pictures is to shoot them full frame, and that is how we present them. This provides the viewer with the precise intent of what Michael wished to convey. You will notice in his work the continual juxtaposition of the refurbished classic cars with the common Havana urban landscape of distressed walls and of what remains of the architecture of old Havana. A popular calendar for both classic car buffs as well as those appreciative of photography of Cuba.
