Excerpt from The Murphy A B, C System of Car and Carriage Painting: Respectfully Offered to the Car and Carriage Builders, and to the Car and Carriage Painters of America, and to All Others Interested in the Perfecting and Simplifying of Mechanical Processes, and in the Development of Time-Saving, Labor-Saving and Other E

We are by no means unmindful of the fact that, in offering to the trade a new system of surfacing, we are, so to speak, putting our shoulder to a decidedly huge wheel; nor do we overlook the further facts, viz: that a good many felloes (fellows) have already spoke (n) on the subject, and that many good felloes (fellows) are somewhat tired of listening to anything "run out" on this theme. Yet, so positively are we impressed with the idea that only the rim of the subject - only the priming coat, as it were - has yet been reached by those who have preceded us in putting their shoulder to the wheel, and so full is our faith that there are still a few who believe improvement on the present system of car and carriage painting not impossible: also that these heroic few will never tire of seconding any well directed, earnest endeavor to discover and establish the better way, we are encouraged to give expression to our views.
