When a kid from a neighboring town is stabbed in a downtown park, 16-year-old Ashley Munroe stumbles upon a drug ring in his quiet suburban town. The decision to reveal his findings in the high school newspaper is made more complex by the presence of his brother at the park gatherings.

Once the article appears, his trouble really starts. Vandalism to his home, a bomb threat at the school, and telephoned death threats make Ashley and his family wonder if he made the proper decision. A climactic Halloween night brings it all to a stunning resolution.

Based on a true story, we see how one teenager, by following his conscience, can truly make an impact on society.
