Lerner Publishing Group is one of North America's largest independent book publishers for children and young adults. We are proud to celebrate fifty years of creating books that educate, entertain, and empower young people. The company was founded in 1959 with four titles published for children to read at doctor's offices to comfort them about common childhood illnesses. Half a century later, Lerner Publishing Group has more than 4,000 titles in print and releases more than 300 new titles each year for both the trade and school and library markets.

Tenacity Well Directed shares the inside story behind 50 years of children's books at Lerner Publishing Group.
