Two years after his wife's murder, Kirby Mayhew submits his resignation letter as pastor of Harvest Church. He's ready to pack up his life and move away from Caney Cove and away from the shadow of grief he's been living under. But a deathbed confession from the ailing Trudy Andrus reveals new information about his wife's killer. Did the man convicted of Julie's murder act alone? Was someone else to blame for her death? As Kirby pursues the truth, an unseen enemy fights to keep it hidden. Kirby enlists the help of Carson Todd, a local attorney who worked on the prosecution's case until she was sidelined for asking too many questions. Only together can they unravel the truth. But at what cost?
