They thought they knew the dangers of exploring the wilds of what had once been northern Michigan. In the decade since technology died, taking most of humanity with it, those who'd banded together on the shores of Lake Superior had faced everything from roving marauders to half-mad cannibals. Yet, as a veteran three-man team scouts the frontier seeking potential dangers to their families and homes, they discovered not only a new type of threat, but a terrifying Native legend come to life- the Windego.
