Great Pirate Stories: Two Volumes In One Various

“Masterpieces of pirate literature, tales of sea fights, land forays, wreck, pillory and buried treasure, written by great storytellers. This is a book for the reading table, an anthology to read again and again. Each story is complete. French has searched literature for the most thrilling tales. Read of the roaring buccaneers of the Spanish Main, the corsairs of the Deathly Shore, of sinking ships, lost armadas, and death on the ocean.” - The Dial, Volume 73, July, 1922

“The best stories contained in literature about pirates, each one a famous masterpiece, complete and artfully told...A unique anthology, every word of it absorbing, by the compiler of Great Sea Stories.” -The Atlantic, Volume 130, July, 1922
