Lady Sarah Levine was just a young noble woman from the farm town of Ditrum. When an invitation is issued from the Duke Emrick of Baldwin for all the available maidens to attend a festival he is hosting at his castle. Being from the southlands the Duke's top General is sent to escort her to the ball. The first morning is when things become askew- An odd old woman in the woods gives her a jar of old beans. A giant General who has no care of words or feelings treats her as if she is a task to cross off his to do list. Her best friend, Jack, is following closely behind trying to save her from her dismal fate without him. She goes to a magical city in the treetops. A band of rebels capture her and drags her away from her trip. What Lady Sarah Levine doesn't realize when she stepped foot out of her door that morning was she was at the beginning of one of the world's most famous fairy tales.
