As the Itihasian army prepares its siege outside Averlace's walls, the last remnants of the Syndicate threaten the city within, forcing the Elite to fight a war on two fronts. Hope seems lost until the spectacular arrival of two young manaists, reminding Averlace of its rich heritage in magic. Now the lines between alliances and rivalries are blurred as the Elite turn to old enemies and forgotten magic to survive the coming siege. Can discipline in magic once deemed too dangerous be the kingdom's salvation, or was the kingdom's ancestors right to ban Manaism and its secrets?
