The Savior's Prophecies: From the Fall of Jerusalem to the Second Coming Richard D. Draper

The Lord has assured us that if ye are prepared ye shall not fear. As this intriguing book shows, the Lord has prepared and continues to prepare His people for what is to come including His Second Coming.

Two days before the Savior was crucified, He shared His most profound mortal prophecy. So important was this prophecy that the Lord preserved it in five accounts: Matthew, Mark, Luke, Joseph Smith Matthew, and Doctrine and Covenants 45, where the Lord quotes a large segment of it in revelation to Joseph Smith.

This dramatic prophecy addresses three distinct periods of time: the immediate future of the Church and its leadership; the contemporary fall of the Jewish nation; and finally, the eventual triumph of God's people at the Savior's Second Coming.

In The Savior's Prophecies, renowned gospel scholar Richard D. Draper takes a fascinating look at how the Lord prepares and warns His people, the events surrounding the Second Coming and the last days, and ways that we can be prepared for this magnificent event.
