This early childhood picture book tells a gentle story in single-word text, leaving the narrative open and allowing grown-up readers to individualize the story for any toddler. On her first day of kindergarten, a little girl experiences many new things and people-after her first tentative steps through the door she grows more confident, joins in, makes new friends, and has fun learning until her dad picks her up at the end of the day. The bold, bright watercolor artwork features engaging characters, and the large, durable "toddler-proof" format is perfect for sharing.
